Northanger Abbey and Persuasion

Northanger Abbey

Northanger Abbey is a hilarious parody of 18th century gothic novels. The heroine, 17−year old Catherine, has been reading far too many "horrid" gothic novels and would love to encounter some gothic−style terror − but the superficial world of Bath proves hazardous enough. (Summary by Kara)

Persuasion

Eight years ago, Anne Elliot fell in love with a poor but ambitious young naval officer, Frederick Wentworth. The Elliots were dissatisfied with Anne's choice, feeling he was not distinguished enough for their family, and her older friend and mentor, Lady Russell, acting in place of Anne's deceased mother, persuaded her to break off the match. Now 27 and considered a spinster, Anne re−encounters her former fiance, now a captain, as he courts her spirited young neighbour, Louisa Musgrove. The self−interested machinations of Anne's older sister Elizabeth, of Elizabeth's friend Mrs. Clay, and of Anne's father's heir, William Elliot, constitute an important subplot.
